

PUBLICATION STANDARDS

The IUSTITIA Journal of the Faculty of Law University of Santo Tomas Bucaramanga Branch, serving the Administrative Department of Science, Technology and Innovation Colciencias and Indexing Service exposes the publication rules necessary for the submission of contributions:

For acceptance of the articles by the Editorial Committee, it is required to be original and unpublished articles (without partial or full publication).

The item must be accompanied by the Curriculum Vitae of the author: author's full name, date of birth, nationality, level of education, names of institutions, research center or institution to which position he plays belongs. Publication of articles, book chapters and books should be presented (in the curriculum) with all relevant information: title, journal name or compilation, ISSN or ISBN, total number of pages of full text, number of pages of the article or chapter, year of publication, publisher and country.

The text must be submitted on magnetic media, in Word format, APA Standards, pages 25 to 30, spacing, font Times New Roman 12, should have a summary not exceeding 10 lines, abstract, keywords, keywords. In conjunction with Annexes should be attached list of graphs and tables, with their corresponding numbers and page. Tables and figures must be submitted in format in separate files in TIFF or JPG format with resolution no less than 300 DPI each original to make the necessary adjustments editing.

Items received will be sent to peer reviewers, who will be required to take into account in assessing the quality and academic rigor of the text, as well as the requirement of the rules for publishing academic works.

Receiving Items: IUSTITIA Journal: revista.iustitia@ustabuca.edu.co;

Mailing Address CP (See Bucaramanga): Cra 18 No. 9-27.

Bucaramanga, Santander, Colombia. PBX: (+57) 607 6985858 Ext: 6511.

The call (2019) for articles will be between February 1 and July 31. The publication language is Spanish, articles in English, French and Portuguese, Italian accepted. The Editorial Committee will send communication on the approval or not article a term not exceeding three (3) months.

Currently processes for registration with the specialized community are processed.